Nominee Bios:

Dustin Call:

I am running for HOA president to be a strong advocate for the residents of Rock Creek Estates, ensuring their voices are heard, their concerns addressed, and their interests prioritized.

William Wright:

I would like to submit my nomination for HOA President. I feel that my 30+ year background in management and construction site services gives me the ability to review and help make decisions on items that are of concern for our neighborhood. I see this position as one that is there to help in decision making for the neighborhood as a whole. My goal is for everyone to have a safe and enjoyable atmosphere to be in.
